

IL&FS Gets Approval for ₹2,700-Crore Claims Towards Stuck Projects

Press Trust of India

New Delhi: IL&FS Group has received approvals from various government authorities for claims worth about ₹2,700 crore towards stuck or incomplete road projects, officials said. The NHAI Conciliation Committee recently approved a claim for approximately ₹707 crore for the ILFS-Fagne Songadh Expressway Limited project (in Gujarat-Maharashtra border area), while the committee had earlier approved claims of ₹902 crore for the Khed Sinnar Expressway project (in Maharashtra). Other projects for which claims have been approved include Kiratpur Ner Chowk Expressway for ₹672 crore (Himachal Pradesh) and Jorabat Shillong Expressway for ₹252 crore (Meghalaya).

Additionally, the Ministry of Road, Transport and Highways had cleared claims of ITNL Road Infrastructure Development Company for ₹144 crore.

In case of both Jorabat Shillong and IRIDCL projects, the settlement agreements have been duly signed with authorities, officials said. When contacted, an IL&FS spokesperson declined to comment.
